Authorization to Release Information

Any representatives of any of the trade or bank references identified in this Application are authorized to disclose to Cooper any information pertaining to Applicant's financial history and information requested by Cooper from time to time, including, without limitation, information regarding Applicant's loans, accounts, purchases, or other financial transactions involving the bank or trade reference in the past, present, and future, loan applications and income statements, balance sheets and other financial statements, and Applicant hereby waives any and all claims against, and fully releases from liability, any trade or bank references and their representatives with respect to any such disclosure.

Cooper, through any of its employees, officers, or agents, is authorized to contact the trade and bank references identified in this Application and to obtain such additional information as they may require concerning Applicant's financial strength, and Applicant hereby waives any and all claims against, and fully releases from liability with respect to any such inquiry, Cooper and its employees, officers, and agents.

While this Application is pending and throughout any period during which Cooper is doing business with Applicant, Cooper may obtain credit reports regarding Applicant as well as its principal(s), proprietor(s), and/or guarantor(s) in connection with Cooper's business relationship with Applicant. Applicant hereby consents to the use of any such credit report. Furthermore, Cooper is authorized to share information regarding Cooper's business relationship with Applicant if such information is specifically requested from Cooper.

SECTION 4 | PERSONAL GUARANTY (Required for new or small businesses)

To induce Cooper to enter into a business relationship with the Applicant identified above, and in consideration therefor should Cooper do so, the undersigned personally and unconditionally guarantees payment of all obligations owed by the Applicant to Cooper now or in the future, including reasonable attorney's fees and collection costs. This guaranty shall be continuing, absolute, and unconditional. This is a continuing guaranty of payment and not of collection.

If Cooper currently holds or hereafter receives one or more additional guaranties from Guarantor, the rights of Cooper under all such guaranties shall be cumulative. This Guaranty shall not affect or lessen any of such other guaranties. The liability of Guarantor will be the aggregate liability of Guarantor under the terms of this Guaranty and all such other unterminated guaranties. Guarantor has not signed this Guaranty in reliance on the guaranty(ies) of any other guarantor(s). Guarantor's liability under this Guaranty shall be separate, distinct and independent of the liability of Applicant and of the liability of any other guarantor(s) of all or any portion of the obligations, and Guarantor's liability under this Guaranty shall not be affected or lessened by the guaranty(ies) of any other guarantor(s), the termination or revocation of any other guaranty(ies), or the release of Applicant or of any other guarantor(s).

If all or any portion of the Applicant's obligations is not paid as and when due, Cooper may call upon Guarantor from time to time to pay without first attempting to collect from Applicant or any other person or entity who may be liable for all or any portion of the obligations. This Guaranty will continue in full force and effect until all Applicant's obligations to Cooper have been fully and finally paid and satisfied, and this Guaranty has been expressly revoked prospectively by Guarantor.

However, Guarantor may prospectively revoke this Guaranty at any time and thereby limit his, her, or its liability. If Guarantor elects to revoke this Guaranty, Guarantor may do so only in writing. Guarantor's written notice of revocation will not be effective until three business days after the date it is actually received by a Cooper officer responsible for the administration of the obligations. Guarantor's notice of revocation will apply only as to new obligations incurred or created after the notice of revocation becomes effective.
